

New South Wales Crime Commission

September 2011

Subsection 6 (1) of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 provides that “An agency must make the government information that is its open access information publicly available unless there is an overriding public interest against disclosure of the information.”

Open access information not released on the basis of an overriding public interest against disclosure
Reference number	Information / topic	Reason for not disclosing information
	Policy documents relating to the Commission’s investigative and reporting functions	This information is excluded information as listed in Schedule 2 of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 .